NEWS LETTER
APRIL, 1962

STATISTICAL TECHNIQS FOR BETTER MANAGEMENT

Chairman: R. Boyd Ladd
Surveys and Research Corp.

Speakers: Willard R. Fazar, Department of Defense, "PERT: a statistical tool for program management. "
Jack Moshman, C-E-I-R
"RAMPS: Resource Allocation and Multi-Purpose Scheduling. "

PERT (don't bother about what the letters originally stood for) and RAMPS are two of the most exciting and significant advances made in recent years in the application of statistical methods to management reporting systems and to decision-making. In addition to the discussion, a film (if all goes well) will be shown.

Date: Thursday, April 26
Time: 8:00 p.m.
Place: Room 2, Hall of Government
George Washington University
21st and G Streets, N. W.

Candidates for office for the coming year (selected by the Nominating Committee) will be announced. Any other candidate may be nominated upon petition signed by 10 members. Such petition must be received by the Nominating Committee by May 4.
