NEWSLETTER - APRIL 1963

STATISTICAL PROBLEMS IN THE SPACE PROGRAM

- CHAIRMAN: Nicholas E. Golovin, Office of Science and Technology,
Executive Office of the President
- SPEAKERS: William W. Wolman, Goddard Space Center
"Problems in Space Science and the Satellite Applications Program"
- Catherine D. Hock, Office of Manned Space Flight, N.A.S.A.
"Problems in the Manned Lunar Landing Program"
- Charles P. Wood, Headquarters, N.A.S.A.
"Problems in the Acquisition and Utilization of Satellite Data"

The Society's last discussion of this subject was nearly four years ago. There has been great technical progress since then, and as everyone knows, there has been a tremendous step-up in the space-satellite program. The speakers will discuss research and development production of space vehicles, and the tracing, reduction and evaluation of flight data. The chairman will summarize the discussion.

- WHEN: Monday, April 29, 8:00 p.m.
- WHERE: Auditorium, GSA Bldg., 18th & F Sts., N.W. (Note different location)
