STATISTICS AND TAX LEGISLATION

CHAIRMAN & DISCUSSANT: Joseph A. Pechman, Director of Economic Studies, Brookings Institution

SPEAKERS: Laurence N. Woodworth, Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation, Congress of the United States - Will discuss specific experiences in evaluating and developing proposed legislation.

George E. Lent, Dartmouth University and Treasury Office of Tax Analysis - will discuss specific contributions he has made to the Treasury's tax proposals.

W. Edwards Deming, statistical consultant - will discuss the quality of data existing and needed for current tax models, based on his recent work for the Statistics Division, Internal Revenue Service.

The role of our profession in current proposed tax legislation - What could be more timely?
